Vocational Rehabilitation & Blind Services

"REAL WORK, REAL WAGES"

DIVERSIFY YOUR WORKFORCE

Individuals with disabilities can meet your business needs!

A DIVERSE WORKFORCE CAN CREATE BETTER SOLUTIONS TO BUSINESS CHALLENGES!

- The Department of Labor predicts a shortfall of qualified workers to fill Montana jobs. People with disabilities represent the largest untapped pool of talented workers.
- Employees with disabilities represent a diverse customer base and give business an advantage to a broader market base.
- Employees with disabilities have equal or higher job performance rates, higher retention rates and lower absenteeism.
- Over 50% of job accommodations that may be needed in the workplace cost under $500.00 and many cost absolutely nothing.
- Financial incentives are available to employers such as tax credits and tax deductions to help create a disability-friendly environment for workers and customers with disabilities.

Vocational Rehabilitation & Blind Services can support your business needs!

- Provide consultation and resources on topics such as ADA, disability awareness and financial incentives
- Technical assistance on topics such as job accommodations and assistive technology
- Work-based learning experiences such as internships and On-the-Job training funds
- Job coaching and long-term supports

Camp 21 offers two local tours in the Miles City area. Both tours are narrated by one of Camp 21's extremely knowledgeable guides. Transportation is on Camp 21's comfortable 25-passenger bus.

"These Old Homes Tour"

The These Old Homes Tour explores the architectural history of Miles City, famous cow town of the west. While riding in our comfortable Camp 21 bus, you will be treated to engaging stories about many of the houses of Miles City, and the people who lived in them - and helped to shape not only Miles City, but Montana and the Old West.

www.yellowstonejewel.com/camp-21-tours/

"Valley Tour"

The Valley Tour explores the land surrounding and encompassing Gustav's famous Camp 21 on June 15th, 1870. This interesting tour features the main Alvarado Junction railroad station and including the notorious General George A. Custer. You will gain many new insights regarding the history of the significant Camp 21, including that of the battle, Native American Plank table and the US military at the 1870's.

The Historic Tusler House

This historically significant Victorian home is now Miles City's newest venue and guest house, offering many amenities, facilities, spaces and activities. It has been lovingly and meticulously rejuvenated and redecorated to retain all of its historic beauty and charm.

Shown above are the Tusler house, the large firepit area with log seats and the custom teepee, which sleeps 12. All this, and much more awaits guests.

*Come For The Fun
Come For The Experience*

Enjoy Montana's wildlife, hike our many quiet trails, ride your horse, play a game of horseshoes or stroll the banks of the mighty Yellowstone. Make a weekend of it all - stay in our luxurious, historic guest house.

We really do have something for everyone — At the Yellowstone Jewel!

My name is Deb Donndelinger. I am a wife, and Mother of four, and have nine Grandchildren. We are originally from Minnesota, but moved to Miles City 2 years ago to be closer to our children and grandchildren.

I have been in the Personal Care profession for over 26 years. I worked as a Physical Therapist Aid in an Elderly Care facility for 6 years, and as a Direct Support Professional (DSP) for 20 years. As a DSP I traveled to my clients homes where I helped with life's day-to-day challenges. I provide the type of care people deserve, believing that life's struggles should not rob them of their dignity.

Please consider me when you or your loved ones need assistance.

Sincerely,

Deb Donndelinger

Russian Olive Workshop - September 12-13, 2016

Celebrating 5 Years of Successful Russian Olive Removal and Restoration Research

at USDA-ARS Fort Keogh, Miles City, MT

Many areas on the Yellowstone River have converted to dense Russian olive stands, reducing their agricultural and ecological value. Controlling Russian olive is a multi-year commitment, with stump resprouting occurring up to two years post-removal and massive recruitment from seed after that. This event will provide an opportunity to learn about successful control and restoration.

September 12

Afternoon Talks ~ 1:00-5:00 pm:

- Peter Lesica ~ “History and Ecology of Russian Olive in Montana”
- Sharlene Sing ~ “Russian Olive and Wildlife”
- Melissa Maggio ~ “Application of Biocontrol for Rangeland Weeds”
- Erin Espeland ~ “Russian Olive Removal and Restoration”

BBQ Supper to follow at 6:00 pm

Please Note: There is a $10 registration fee to cover the costs of the meal. Location yet to be determined.

September 13

*Field Tour/Demonstrations ~
8:00 am to noon*

- Cottonwood planting
- Transplanting trees and shrubs
- Russian olive removal with a tree shear
- Missouri River Watershed Coalition Conservation Innovation Grant
- 5-year recovery post-removal
