WATERWORKS ART MUSEUM

Summer 2017 Adult Workshops

To sign up for workshops, stop in or call
WaterWorks Art Museum (WAM) at 234-0635.

The Art of Steampunk

Wednesday, June 7 / 6:30 - 9:30pm

Instructor: Mark Sanders

Cost: Members: $25/Non-Members: $30

This workshop will introduce you to the world of steampunk! Imagine a futuristic sci-fi world where everyone dresses like it is the Victorian Era and everything is powered by steam - this is the world of steampunk. Explore both 2D and 3D art in this unique and expressive workshop.

Watercolors

Saturday, July 22 / 11am - 2pm

Instructor: TBD

Cost: Members: $20/Non-Members: $25

Designed for both beginners and advanced watercolor artists, this workshop will explore the foundations of building a successful watercolor creation in addition to covering the various techniques involved in this medium. Watercolor paper, paint, and basic brushes will be provided. Participants are welcome to bring their own brushes and any other materials they may need.

Intaglio Printmaking

Friday, August 4 / 5:30 - 9:30pm

Instructor: Mark Sanders

Cost: Members: $30/Non-Members: $35

The term intaglio, meaning "to engrave" or "cut into", refers to the process by which an image is created by gouging, biting, or incising lines into the surface of a metal plate. The print is produced by filling the recessed marks with ink in order to transfer the image to damp paper. Sign up for the workshop to learn more about this exciting medium and create some prints!

Building Active Communities Initiative

Are you interested in making your community safer for kids to walk to school or ride their bike to the park? For seniors to be able to get out and be active even if they can no longer drive a car? Building safe, accessible and comfortable places for people to be active is not only important for health and wellbeing but can also support more connected neighborhoods, vibrant downtowns and tourism.

Come learn more about the benefits of walkable places and the tools and resources it takes to build them at the Building Active Communities Workshop.

Where: First Presbyterian Church, Miles City, Montana

When: July 18, 2017 (see website for details and agenda)

Cost: Free, lunch included

Registration required: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/BACIREGMTG>

For more information call Cathy Costakis at (406) 994-5734 or email costakis@montana.edu

The Building Active Communities Initiative (BACI) is a project of the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services in cooperation with Montana State University's Office of Rural Health. With in-depth, interactive training, mentoring and ongoing technical assistance, the Building Active Communities Initiative supports community-led approaches to develop active and healthy communities.

Lance Robbins, DO
Internal Medicine &
Pediatrics

Pediatric care in Eastern Montana just got better.

Holy Rosary Healthcare welcomes
Dr. Lance Robbins to the medical staff.

Born and raised on a cattle ranch in Winifred, Dr. Robbins is excited to return to rural Montana with his passion for both internal medicine and pediatrics. He has a clinical interest in preventive care, asthma, coronary heart disease and congestive heart failure.

A lifelong Grizzlies fan, Dr. Robbins enjoys all Montana has to offer – especially snow sports and hunting. You will find his clinic practice to be relaxed, casual and inviting.

At Big Sky Financial... It's More Than Choosing Investments

It's about delivering comprehensive financial planning solutions and being personally invested in reaching your financial goals, not just selling a product. No financial situation is the same, which is where our experience creating custom-tailored financial plans and asking important questions adds intangible value to your financial future.

Our Process

We care about you and helping you reach your financial goals. Without our seven step process, we would not be able to look at every detail to help deliver a comprehensive action plan.

Our Services

None of this planning would be possible unless we have earned your trust and are consistently acting in your best interest by providing:

- * Review of retirement plans and current debt to align with financial goals
- * Income distributions and cash flow strategies
- * Review of insurance and long term care needs
- * Investment Strategies
- * Retirement Planning
- * Social Security Analysis
- * Medicare Analysis
- * Periodic Reviews
- * Coordination with other professionals

Our Fee Structure

Our investment advisory practice is fee based. Our annual advisory fees are calculated simply as a percentage of assets under management. Our fees are not based on trading activity or commissions.

Additional charges may apply based on planning needs. Consult your advisor for fee arrangement specific to your circumstances.*
