Montana Conversations

'Some Favorite Indian Stories

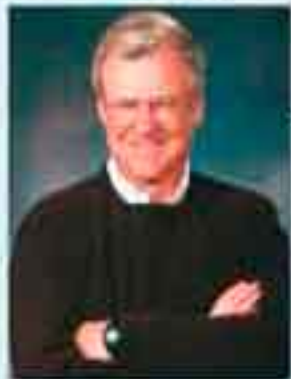

with Hal Stearns

Sunday, August 6th - 2:00pm

Riders Museum - Memorial Hall

Free presentation - Open to Everyone

Native Americans are the first contributors to the culture of Big Sky Country and their impact on the arts and our joint history and literature continues into the present. From tribal stories and ancient histories to more recent historical individuals like Sitting Bull, Plenty Coups, Sacagawea, Eloise Cobell, and the Fort Shaw Girls' Basketball Team of 1904—all of these stories add to the vibrancy and deep meaning of the Big Sky Country.

Together, they provide a broad panorama to our whole wide and fascinating history.

Lance Robbins, DO
Internal Medicine &
Pediatrics

Pediatric care in Eastern Montana just got better.

Holy Rosary Healthcare welcomes
Dr. Lance Robbins to the medical staff.

Born and raised on a cattle ranch in Winifred, Dr. Robbins is excited to return to rural Montana with his passion for both internal medicine and pediatrics. He has a clinical interest in preventive care, asthma, coronary heart disease and congestive heart failure.

A lifelong Grizzlies fan, Dr. Robbins enjoys all Montana has to offer – especially snow sports and hunting. You will find his clinic practice to be relaxed, casual and inviting.

- Residency: Internal Medicine & Pediatrics, University of Missouri, Columbia, MO
- Doctorate of Osteopathy, West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine, Lewisburg, WV
- Undergraduate: University of Montana, Missoula, Montana

People Healing People

begins with valuable health care services, delivered by an exceptional medical team of experts. Like Gladys, you can rely Holy Rosary Healthcare for high-quality care.

See Gladys' story at hrh-mt.org/familymedicine.
