Montana has implemented a new law requiring all food vendors to obtain a license and follow various safe food-handling regulations. In order to keep our fees low, and not have teams incur additional licensing expenses, we are requesting that you indicate your preference below for any left-over cooked meat. If you do wish to sell tasting samples at your site, a temporary food license will be required through the Custer County Sanitation officer. Contact Mike Rinaldi at (406) 366-1424

I wish to sell tasting samples from left-over cooked meat at my site, and will show proof of licensure prior to the event.

I wish to donate any leftover cooked meat to CCCT allowing them to sell as samples (tax deductible)

I wish to sell tasting samples at the CCCT concession booth, for which I will receive 60% of token sales.*

*Your left-over meat will be labeled and 60% of tokens received for tasting samples will be paid back to you.
